

NOTICE 22/5/24

DIRECTOR VACANCY – TULLY WARD

North Queensland Land Council Native Title Representative Body Aboriginal Corporation has a vacancy for a director for the Tully Ward.

This notice is calling for expressions of interest from registered Members to fill the current vacancy on the board. The term of the position – up until AGM November 2025.

Take notice - all expressions of interest need to be in writing and addressed to:

Chairperson
North Queensland Land Council
PO Box 679
CAIRNS North QLD 4870

- It is the applicants obligation to check that they are a member as defined in chapter 8 of the NQLC Rulebook.
- Only applications received from members registered in the ward where the vacancy exists will be considered.
- The applicant must understand the roles and responsibilities of directors as contained in Chapter 6 of the CATSI Act 2006 and the duties of the board as outlined in Chapter 15 of the NQLC Rulebook.
- Applicants must supply any and all relevant information that may be help the board to make a decision (to performing the duties as a director – skills, knowledge, abilities etc).
- Applicants must supply a Directors Identification Number.

If you (or any NQLC ward member you know) are interested in filling the vacant ward director position in this NQLC ward area, we would like to hear from you.

Applications must be received no later than COB 10th June 2024.

Applications received after the closing date will not be considered. A failure to fill the vacant position on the board by this EOI process will result in the board making a selection from the member list (from the ward affected).

